English Tourism Week is an annual opportunity for the Tourism Industry to highlight the success of the sector and the economic and employment-related benefits that it provides, as well as to discuss the Government policies required to sustain its future growth.

This year, with the Brexit negotiations beginning and a Tourism Bid being developed under the Government’s Industrial Strategy, it is more important than ever for the industry to come together to debate what actions need to be taken now in order to position the industry so that it can continue to provide growth in a post-Brexit environment.

The Tourism Alliance, the Tourism Society and British Destinations are therefore working together to stage the inaugural English Tourism Week Conference. This conference brings together a wide range of experts to provide updates and insights on the key challenges affecting the sector: from Brexit and the Industrial Strategy through to the Sharing Economy, Tourism Taxes and coping with future Skills Shortages.

The focus of the conference is on providing tourism leaders and businesses with the information they need to successfully navigate this unique period in the UK’s history.

Conference Speakers include:

Kevin Brennan MP, Shadow Tourism Minister
Gordon Marsden MP, Chair of the Tourism APPG
Cllr Gerald Vernon Jackson CBE, Chair of the LGA Culture, Tourism & Sport Board
Denis Wormwell, Chairman, VisitEngland
John Foster, Campaigns Director, CBI

Member Rate*: £95 (+VAT)
* This rate applies to members of the Tourism Alliance, the Tourism Society, British Destinations, TMI and London First.

Non-Member Rate: £145 (+VAT)

All delegates to the Conference are invited to attend the Tourism Alliance Parliamentary Reception, which will be held in the House of Commons following the Conference at 4pm. A copy of your invitation to the Parliamentary Reception will be sent to you with your booking confirmation.
